

Calhoun: The NPS Institutional Archive
DSpace Repository

History of Naval Postgraduate School

Biographies

1975

Resume of Alexander Clayton Crosby, 1975

Crosby, Alexander Clayton

Monterey, California: Naval Postgraduate School

<http://hdl.handle.net/10945/52877>

This publication is a work of the U.S. Government as defined in Title 17, United States Code, Section 101. Copyright protection is not available for this work in the United States.

Downloaded from NPS Archive: Calhoun

Calhoun is the Naval Postgraduate School's public access digital repository for research materials and institutional publications created by the NPS community. Calhoun is named for Professor of Mathematics Guy K. Calhoun, NPS's first appointed -- and published -- scholarly author.

Dudley Knox Library / Naval Postgraduate School
411 Dyer Road / 1 University Circle
Monterey, California USA 93943

<http://www.nps.edu/library>

RESUME OF ALEXANDER CLAYTON CROSBY

Alexander C. Crosby, Supply Corps, U. S. Navy, was born in Paterson, New Jersey on 19 January 1936. He attended the University of California at Berkeley, where he received the degree of Bachelor of Science in June 1957. In June 1972 he received the degree of Master in Business Administration from the Harvard Business School.

Upon graduation from the University of California he spent a year and a half as an auditor with the U. S. Army Audit Agency, Seattle Washington. He then entered the Navy, was commissioned an Ensign after four months at the Naval Officer Candidate School, and completed the six month Supply Indoctrination course at the Navy Supply Corps School.

His Navy tours of duty include a year and a half as Supply Officer of the USS FLOYD B. PARKS (DD-884), two years as an auditor at the Navy Area Audit Office, San Francisco, and a year and a half as Deputy Comptroller of the Marine Corps Air Station, Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii.

In January 1965 he was assigned to the Director, Division of Naval Reactors, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, where he spent five and one-half years working in contract administration functions, first in Washington, D. C. , then as a field representative at the Bettis Atomic Power Laboratory, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

In June 1975 he completed three years of work in inventory and financial management functions at the Navy Fleet Material Support Office, Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania.

In July 1975 he joined the faculty of the Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California, where he is teaching in the Department of Administrative Sciences.